The three cartoon commandos from the Royal Marines were catapulted to national fame with the publication of their two collections Up the Falklands! and Carry on Yomping!

Up the Falklands! reached No 4 in the mass market paperback Bestsellers list and ended up selling over 150,000 copies, donating in the process £10,000 in royalties and profits to the South Atlantic Fund. The sequel Carry on Yomping! notched up a further 50,000 sales.

This is the third collection from the pens of the talented Marines. Sixty-one hilarious cartoons portray aspects of life in the three services including training, induction, NAAFI food, combat operations and inter-forces rivalry.

Over The Top! contains lots of fun for servicemen, ex-servicemen and anyone who enjoys a good belly laugh.
